

Double breasted?

Guys can get breast cancer too.

Breast Cancer
Foundation NZ

25 men are diagnosed with breast cancer in New Zealand each year.

While rare, the most common symptoms in men are a painless breast lump or nipple discharge.

Show your doctor any breast changes especially if you're 50 plus, and have a close family history of breast or ovarian cancer.

If in doubt, get it checked out.

FOR ADVICE:

0800 BC Nurse (0800 2268 773)

www.breastcancerfoundation.org.nz/men

www.mybc.care

breastnurse@bcf.org.nz

